

- ◆ Founded in 1979 as a ministry of Luther Place Memorial Church in Washington DC, LVC is a independent nonprofit organization aligned with the mission of the ELCA. LVC is a member of both Lutheran Services in America and Catholic Volunteer Network.
- ◆ LVC connects individuals who want to give back to urban communities with job opportunities in 8 different US cities.
- ◆ Volunteers live together in intentional household communities of 4-7 people.
- ◆ LVC is on a Journey to an Inclusive Community, forming and strengthening alliances among people of many cultures and communities and intentionally dismantling racism in our organization, the church, and society.

How Can I Support LVC?

Pray

We welcome your prayers for current and prospective Volunteers; staff, board members, local supporters, and host congregations; alumni, donors, and friends; and for peace with justice in all the world.

Recommend a year of service

Who in your life is being called to LVC? We welcome applications from self-motivated and mature individuals 21 or older. Many recent college graduates find rich opportunities in LVC for spiritual growth and vocational discernment.

Support our program

Encourage your congregation to learn more about the program and its Volunteers, help plan (or attend) a fundraiser, make a donation, become a community mentor and more (contact info on reverse side).

- ◆ Founded in 1979 as a ministry of Luther Place Memorial Church in Washington DC, LVC is a independent nonprofit organization aligned with the mission of the ELCA. LVC is a member of both Lutheran Services in America and Catholic Volunteer Network.
- ◆ LVC connects individuals who want to give back to urban communities with job opportunities in 8 different US cities.
- ◆ Volunteers live together in intentional household communities of 4-7 people.
- ◆ LVC is on a Journey to an Inclusive Community, forming and strengthening alliances among people of many cultures and communities and intentionally dismantling racism in our organization, the church, and society.

How Can I Support LVC?

Pray

We welcome your prayers for current and prospective Volunteers; staff, board members, local supporters, and host congregations; alumni, donors, and friends; and for peace with justice in all the world.

Recommend a year of service

Who in your life is being called to LVC? We welcome applications from self-motivated and mature individuals 21 or older. Many recent college graduates find rich opportunities in LVC for spiritual growth and vocational discernment.

Support our program

Encourage your congregation to learn more about the program and its Volunteers, help plan (or attend) a fundraiser, make a donation, become a community mentor and more (contact info on reverse side).

“God has shown you what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Micah 6:8

Social Justice

Simple & Sustainable Living

Intentional Community

The Lutheran Volunteer Corps (LVC), a domestic volunteer program, offers people a challenging year of exploring their spirituality while working for social justice, living in intentional community, and simplifying their lifestyles.

Volunteers staff shelters for women experiencing homelessness, teach in after-school programs, work to protect the environment, assist families in obtaining affordable housing, and more. Positions vary from providing direct services to working on root causes of social problems.

Lutheran Volunteer Corps
1226 Vermont Ave NW, Washington DC 20005
recruitment@lutheranvolunteercorps.org
202-387-3222
www.lutheranvolunteercorps.org

“God has shown you what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Micah 6:8

Social Justice

Simple & Sustainable Living

Intentional Community

The Lutheran Volunteer Corps (LVC), a domestic volunteer program, offers people a challenging year of exploring their spirituality while working for social justice, living in intentional community, and simplifying their lifestyles.

Volunteers staff shelters for women experiencing homelessness, teach in after-school programs, work to protect the environment, assist families in obtaining affordable housing, and more. Positions vary from providing direct services to working on root causes of social problems.

Lutheran Volunteer Corps
1226 Vermont Ave NW, Washington DC 20005
recruitment@lutheranvolunteercorps.org
202-387-3222
www.lutheranvolunteercorps.org